

INVITATION LETTER PARKOUR INTERNATIONAL JUDGES' COURSE 23-25 NOVEMBER 2019 LAUSANNE (SUI)

Dear Federation,

You are kindly invited to send a candidate to take part in the 1st FIG Parkour International Judges' Course to be organized in Lausanne (SUI) on 23-25 November 2019. The main goal of this first open course is to offer the federations an opportunity to provide education for and certify one judge in order to support federations to better organize domestic competitions and certify a judge prior to the 2020 World Championships. This course is a prerequisite to judge any of the Parkour World Cups and the World Championships in 2020. There will be no other courses offered until November 2020.

The course will take place at the FIG headquarters in Lausanne. The course will feature a practical examination, and participants will have the opportunity to earn an international license (formerly brevet) in the category of their result.

The course will be held by the Parkour Commission in accordance with the following FIG Rules:

- Parkour Code of Points 2019-2020 (to be approved by 10 November 2019)
- Parkour Technical Regulations 2019 (Section 7 of FIG Technical Regulations)
- Specific Judges' Rules for Parkour (to be approved by 10 November 2019)
- All current versions of each document can be found at the FIG website under Rules
